

KULIGA TANASAVATE

kuliga.t@rmutsv.ac.th

+66 84 377 4489

EDUCATION

---

Ph.D. in Education

The University of Sydney, Australia – March 2024

Thesis Title: Establishing and validating standards for measuring English proficiency of prospective Thai tour guides

M.Ed. in Teaching English as a Foreign Language

Chulalongkorn University, Thailand - October 2013

B.Ed. in English – Non-formal Education

Chulalongkorn University, Thailand - March 2012

CURRENT POSITION

---

Lecturer

Foreign Languages Department

Faculty of Liberal Arts, Rajamangala University of Technology Srivijaya

Additional Roles:

- Assistant Director, Research and Development Institute, Rajamangala University of Technology Srivijaya
- Editorial Team Member (English Language Reviewer), Recent Science and Technology (RST) Journal

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

---

Boonmee, J. & Tanasavate, K. (2019). Community-based tourism management in Trang, Satunand and Krabi provinces. RMUTSV Research Journal, 11(3), 491-503.

Tanasavate, K. (2018). Using games in communicative language teaching classroom to improve students' English communication skills: A case study of Rajamangala University of Technology Srivijaya, Trang Campus, Thailand. Proceedings of International Simulation and Gaming Association 2018, 173 – 181.

Tanasavate, K. & Kerdkong, P. (2017). English language needs of tourism and hospitality industry staffs: A case study of Sukorn Island, Trang Province. In Symposium of International Languages and Knowledge 2017, Perlis, Malaysia.

Tanasavate, K. (2015). Communication strategies use of Thai undergraduate students. Proceedings of Symposium of International Languages & Knowledge 2015, 172-177.

Tanasavate, K., & Chinwonno, A. (2013). A study of Thai EFL learners' and teachers' use of authentic materials. An Online Journal of Education, 8(2), 178-190.